BECOME A SUPPORTER

Purbeck International Chamber Music Festival curated by founder and artistic director Natalie Clein takes place every year at the end of the summer in the beautiful friendly and historically interesting locations around Dorset, including the Isle of Purbeck.

We love to bring international artists and enthusiastic local audiences together in re-energised historic sites and areas of outstanding natural beauty.

We aim to reach as wide a community as we can by keeping ticket prices at an accessible level, especially for children, young people and anyone on low income.

To do so we have to rely on institutional as well individual support to complement the box office income that generates around 50% of the total running costs of the Festival.

As Friend, Angel, or Patron of PICMF, you will help us thrive, and you will receive the benefits below and become part our close circle of supporters.

Your support will ensure that our vibrant, stimulating and world-class festival will continue to bring live music to rural areas of this special corner of Dorset.

We hope you choose to make that positive difference and support us.
